SUBJECT: EXAMINATION DATES.

It has come to my attention that there is conflicting information on when the end of semester examinations scheduled for December, will begin. Be advised that the examination dates for the current groups is as follows;

Undergraduate students in first, second and third year, examinations for the first semester begins on 13th December, 2016 (see Folio 1 attached). For the fourth years, according to the accelerated schedule of semester dates, they begin their exams on 5th December, 2016 (see Folio 2 attached).

All postgraduate students are scheduled to begin their end of semester examinations on 5th December 2016 (see Folio 3 attached).
